VILLA PROPERTY / ALTAMER

ANGUILLA ADDITIONS

What could be better than a few more over-the-top villas at one of the most luxurious resorts worldwide? How about six more custom built by legendary architect Myron Goldfinger along with a megayacht facility developed by Island Global Yachting? Such is the plan for Altamer, Anguilla's pristine beachfront retreat—a preferred destination for the rich and famous—that already offers 13,000-square-foot villas on 1.5-acre sites for $18 to $22 million. Ground will break this year for the half-dozen new homes. These bespoke estates, complete with private pools, hot tubs, tennis courts, indoor fountains, home theaters, glass elevators, aquariums and rooftop terraces with 360-degree views of the Caribbean, will measure 16,000 to 25,000 square feet and go for $42 to $65 million. Looking to rent before you buy? Plan on paying $27,000 to $48,000 a week.
